Opinion Of Elder Patriot - On Thursday we discussed how "unusual" we thought Dianne Feinstein's (D-CA) with Iranian Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif, coming as it did, amid escalating U.S.-Iranian tensions. It raised red flags for us about Democratic senator's motives. According to Politico's Jake Sherman, who broke the story, Sen. Feinstein's office told him that the dinner was "arranged in consultation with the State Department."

Happy Thursday.

In PLAYBOOK this morning:

As the U.S. builds up a military presence around Iran, SEN. DIANNE FEINSTEIN had a private dinner with @JZarif, Iran's foreign minister, when he was in the United States a few weeks ago.

had dinner with IRANIAN FOREIGN MINISTER JAVAD ZARIF when he was in the United States a few weeks ago, several sources told us. Last week, Playbook reported that Feinstein was walking around the Capitol with Zarif's contact information pulled up on her iPhone -- we spotted it in an elevator.

FEINSTEIN'S team tells us that the dinner was "arranged in consultation with the State Department." "The office was in touch with State in advance of the meeting to let them know it was happening and to get an update on U.S.-Iran activity," Feinstein's office said. A State Department official told us that they did not ask Feinstein to go to the dinner with Zarif, a smooth-talking, American-educated Iranian

The State Department denied giving Sen. Feinstein the thumbs up to meet with Zarif:

FEINSTEIN'S office said this was done in consultation with the state department — meaning they gave State a heads up, they said. State tells us they didn't send Feinstein.

When Sherman contacted the White House, via multiple emails, for a statement he didn't get a response.

We reached out to the White House to see how they felt about a member of the Senate minority talking to a top-ranking official of an adversarial country.

Why has Feinstein chosen to become the second high-ranking Democrat to insinuate herself into the Trump administration's harder-line negotiations with the radicalized Iranian regime?

Sen. Dianne Feinstein Caught In Treasonous Lie About Secret Iran Meeting

Feinstein joins Obama's former Secretary of State John Kerry to openly negotiate with the world's leading sponsor of terrorism.

Kerry was tracked imploring our European allies, as well as the Iranians to ignore President Trump's policy towards the terrorist state in an attempt to save the Iranian nuclear deal.

There appears to be more to Feinstein's decision to defy the State Department's advice.

For the possible reason, recall this August 2014 article about Obama's intentions towards Iran, written by Michael Ledeen, a former consultant to the National Security Council and U.S. Defense Department, titled Obama's Latest Big Lie: 'We Have No Strategy':

The actual strategy is detente first, and then a full alliance with Iran throughout the Middle East and North Africa. It has been on display since before the beginning of the Obama administration. During his first presidential campaign in 2008, Mr. Obama used a secret back channel to Tehran to assure the mullahs that he was a friend of the Islamic Republic, and that they would be very happy with his policies. The secret channel was Ambassador William G. Miller, who served in Iran during the shah's rule, as chief of staff for the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and as ambassador to Ukraine. Ambassador Miller has confirmed to me his conversations with Iranian leaders during the 2008 campaign.

Obama's strategy would require realigning all of our relationships with Middle Eastern countries. This would upset the existing world order.

Let me suggest this would also mean that the existing system of transferring wealth from workers to the elites needed some adjustments. For politicians, whose votes are almost always for sale, Obama needed money... untraceable money.

Against this backdrop the JCPOA, that sent $150 Billion to Iran and an additional $1.6 Billion in cash, becomes understandable. There is reason to believe that much of the cash was used by Iran to bribe the Oligarchs of the E.U. to accept the deal.

President Trump's hard-line strategy towards Iran has literally destroyed the Obama/Democratic plan.

If this is not the reason that both John Kerry and Dianne Feinstein have flaunted the Logan Act then I'm open to another explanation. Neither Kerry nor Feinstein have ever done anything for altruistic reasons.

Now consider the non-response from the White House.

Attorney General William Barr is in the process of conducting a widening range of investigations with the assistance of DNI Dan Coats, Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, CIA Director Gina Haspel, FBI Director Christopher Wray, and Director of the NSA Paul Nakasone.

This leads one to wonder what more is going to be discovered... or, perhaps has already been discovered about Barack Obama's Manchurian presidency.

And, the members of Congress - from both sides of the aisle - who aided and abetted him.
